We especially appreciate your passion for public service and giving back to the community – key traits of an effective lawmaker. Your community service experiences and focus on future generations will provide an invaluable perspective in Columbia – ensuring that decisions consider the impact on both current and future generations. We are excited to work with you to find pragmatic solutions that increase prosperity but also protect the natural resources that make our communities unique. We value that you recognize that conservation is conservative and your passion for finding solutions through collaboration and compromise.
