CVSC Policy Internship Spring 2023

About CVSC
Conservation Voters of South Carolina is the political voice of South Carolina's environmental community. CVSC is a bipartisan, non-profit organization that, along with its sister organization the CVSC PAC, passes laws that protect our environment, elects pro-conservation candidates, and holds elected officials accountable. The CVSC Education Fund also works to educate and engage South Carolinians “to protect the South Carolina we love.” We effectively fight for our air, land, and water through bipartisan and pragmatic political action.

General Description
CVSC is seeking a Policy Intern for Spring 2023. In this position you will gain first-hand experience in environmental policy research and advocacy at the legislative and regulatory level.

The successful candidate will assist CVSC Project Managers with policy related research, regulatory research, developing communications and outreach materials, and project management.

Duration: January 7, 2022 - May 31, 2022
Schedule & Compensation: Up to 10 hours a week; $15 hour

Required skills and qualifications
- A basic understanding of or commitment to learn about renewable energy, land protection, water quality, and other environmental issues
- Proficiency with Office and Google programs
- Excellent verbal/written communication skills and attention to detail
- Experience conducting policy research and/or developing a project from conception to completion
- Availability during standard work hours (9-5 roughly) for 10 hours per week
- An understanding of the importance of diversity, equity, and inclusion
- The ability to prioritize multiple tasks and creatively and proactively solve problems
- A commitment to clean air, land, and water and pollution-free communities
- Applicant must provide their own computer and have reliable internet access.

To Apply:
Please submit your resume and a cover letter that addresses how your interests and experience matches the job description and why you want to work to protect the air, land, and water of South Carolina to jobs@cvsc.org with Policy Internship in the subject line.

An application is not considered complete and will not be considered unless both a cover letter and resume are provided. Deadline to apply: December 2, 2022.
